

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S HAUNTED ADVENTURES

LIVE FREE and scream

Is Halloween your bag of tricks? New Hampshire hosts plenty of spectacularly spooky attractions bound to make you jump, perhaps even scream. Gather your courage and put on your brave face you'll need them when you visit a home for the criminally insane, explore a haunted corn maze, or get stuck on Cannibal Island.

1. Fright Kingdom
2. Ghoullog
3. Harvest of Haunts
4. Haunted Acres
5. Haunted Overload
6. Nightmare New England
7. Screeemfest

1. Fright Kingdom

12 Simon Street, Nashua

603-809-1173 / frightkingdom.com

Nashua is home to the largest indoor haunted attraction in New England! The 65,000-square foot Fright Kingdom boasts three indoor haunted houses including the insanely twisted 3D Carnival of Corpses, Vampire Castle and the Victorian Themed Bloodmare Manor. The unique level of detail with movie quality sets, costumes and makeup, make this attraction terrifically terrifying.

2. Ghoulog

1 Skimobile Road, North Conway

603-356-5544 / cranmore.com/ghoullog

Enter another season of the Ghoulog at Cranmore this fall. This hour-long haunt will lead you through a series of dark rooms, scary mazes and unknown places, plus an outdoor element which leads the unsuspecting through the dark woods with all of the scares and screams you've come to expect. Dare to go for a ride in the Haunted Playground, featuring the Mountain Coaster, Giant Swing and Soaring Eagle Zip Line all in unique night-time lighting, the occasional ghost or ghoull offer a unique night-time experience with special lighting, effects.

3. Harvest of Haunts

774 High Street, Candia

603-483-5623 / visitthefarm.com

Charmingfare Farm pulls out all the stops with their four haunting attractions, but will you survive the harvesting? Travel down dark and twisting roads into even darker woods on the Wagon of Fear. Watch your head as you enter the Barn of the Dead, and hope that none of the farm tools fall down on you. Hop aboard the tractor for a Ride into the Bog, or take your chances in the Infested Corn Field.

4. Haunted Acres

446 Raymond Road, Candia

603-483-2200 / hantedacresnh.com

Located at Liquid Planet Waterpark, step into "Area 52" and experience 5 exciting haunts. Take your chances walking along the Quarter Mile Nightmare walk, and hope you don't get stopped by the deranged residents of Area 52. Explore the Graveyard of the Damned, the Maze from Hell, the 3D Nuclear Accident House and Cell Block 13 for real terrifying scares. Haunted Acres is also home to New England's only nighttime 1,000 foot Haunted Zipline.

5. Haunted Overload

66 Lee Road, Lee

603-868-2111 / hauntedoverload.com

Journey (if you dare) into the last standing remains of an old farming village. Dark things once happened there, so dark that no one wants to remember the village even existed. Located at Demeritt Hill Farm, Haunted Overload offers a uniquely terrifying experience through the handmade sets, gigantic monsters and original costumes combines with spooky light and sound effects. Venture into the haunted woods to explore the remnants of what was once a normal village, but beware, some things may have never left. Winner of the ABC's 2014 "Great Halloween Fright Fight"

6. Nightmare New England

454 Charles Bancroft Highway (Rt 3A), Litchfield

603-424-7999 / nightmarenewengland.com

Presented by Spookyworld, Nightmare New England is the largest haunted destination in the Northeast and not for the faint at heart. Located at Mel's Funway Park, it's home to five separate attractions, all equally guaranteed to make you scream. Beyond the thrills and chills there's also zombie paintball, go-karts, mini-golf, carnival concessions, batting cages, tarot card readers and fire pits.

Find other seasonal events
on visitnh.gov

7. ScreeemFest

85 N. Policy Street, Salem

603-893-3506 / canobie.com

Looking for a fearfully fun time? Canobie lake Park transforms into a howling haunt of spooky attractions guaranteed to provide a ScreeemFest. Venture into the Village, drop by the Dead Shed, but don't get caught on Cannibal Island! Regular rides are open and there will be plenty of live entertainment too!